

ATTENDANCE
COMPULSORY ATTENDANCE

FEA
(LOCAL)

Students in violation of the compulsory attendance law shall be reported to the District attendance officer, who may institute court action as provided by law.

EXCUSED ABSENCES

In addition to excused absences required by law, the District shall excuse absences for the following purposes.

HIGHER EDUCATION VISITS

The District shall excuse a student for up to two days during the student's junior year and up to two days during the student's senior year to visit an accredited institution of higher education. A student shall be required to submit verification of such visits in accordance with administrative regulations.

EARLY VOTING OR ELECTION CLERK

The District shall excuse a student for up to two days per school year to serve as an early voting or election clerk. A student shall be required to submit verification of service in accordance with administrative regulations.

[For extracurricular activity absences, see FM.]

WITHDRAWAL FOR NONATTENDANCE
DISCRETIONARY

The school attendance clerk may withdraw a student under the age of 19 who has been absent for ten consecutive school days when continuous attempts to contact the student or the parent or guardian have been unsuccessful.

MANDATORY

The school attendance clerk shall withdraw a student if the student is absent for ten consecutive school days and no reason for the absence is known.

[For District-initiated withdrawal of students 19 or older, see FEA(LEGAL).]

HOMESCHOOLS

When the District becomes aware that a student is being or will be homeschooled, the Superintendent or designee may request in writing a letter of notification from the parents of their intention to homeschool using a curriculum designed to meet basic education goals of reading, spelling, grammar, mathematics, and a study of good citizenship.

If the parents refuse to submit a letter of notification or if the District has evidence that the school-age child is not being homeschooled within legal requirements, the District may investigate further and, if warranted, shall pursue legal action to enforce the compulsory attendance law.
